

American Horticultural Society Benefits For TGOA/MGCA Members

There are many very significant benefits available from the American Horticultural Society (AHS) for all TGOA/MGCA members when the partnership between the two organizations is in effect starting July 1, 2004:

- 1. Free or reduced entry to 170 botanical gardens in the USA. (New ones have been added recently, previous list was 150.)
- 2. A discount in the garden shops of some of the 170 botanical gardens in the USA.
- 3. The American Gardener magazine, due to begin with the July/August 2004 issue.
- 4. Free seed distribution program.
- 5. Tours and presentations especially for AHS members.
- 6. An 800 number for horticultural questions.
- 7. An invitation to visit River Farm, the national AHS headquarters in Alexandria, Va. (Farm previously owned by George Washington.)
- 8. Access to the Members Only section of the AHS web site.
