

PRESS RELEASE

The Gardeners of America/Men's Garden Clubs of America announce the 2012 Executive officers for their national organization. These officers were installed at the annual Board of Directors' meeting in Des Moines, IA, November 5, 2011: President, John J. Kessen, Rome City, IN; First Vice President, James L. Bagwell III, Moore, SC; Second Vice President, R. Daniel Logan III, Madison MS; Third Vice President, Ronald V. Bare, Rockford, IL; and Treasurer, Ronald A. Heggen, Urbandale, IA. The mission of the national organization is to promote gardening education and related environment issues to the membership and the gardening public, through charitable, education and scientific means. For more information on our organization, check out our website: www.tgoa-mgca.org.