

William Moorehouse

William Moorehouse, 89, died peacefully on June 4, 2009.

He was born to Ralph and Evelyn Miles on December 12, 1919. He was raised by his loving aunt and uncle, George W.

and Kathryn Moorehouse, in Cleveland after his mother's death. He received a degree in Chemical Engineering from Case School of Applied Science in 1942, served in the Army during World War II, and worked for the B.F. Goodrich Company until his retirement. On May 13, 1950, he married Mary Louise Fulkerson, and was a loving father to three children.

He was active in the Tax-Aide Program, Torch Club, American Institute of Chemical Engineering, Case Alumni Association, Westminster Presbyterian Church, and the Men's Garden Club where he also served as National President.

He is survived by his wife, Mary; daughters, Anne (David) Hanzel, Martha Moorehouse; son, David (Pam) Moorehouse; grandchildren, Kate and John Moorehouse, Zachary Hanzel; and cousin, Ruth Arnold. He was preceded in death by his sisters, Helen Payne and Marian Johnson.

A Memorial Service will be held on Thursday, June 11, 2009, at Westminster Presbyterian Church, 1250 W. Exchange Street, Akron. Donations in his honor may be made to the Visiting Nurses Association.
